The Sugarplums

Classic & Modern Holiday Music with a Touch of Retro Flair

About

The vocal trio blends holiday harmonies with choreography in The Sugar Plums. The Los Angeles trio won the Christmas Caroler Challenge on the CW in 2020 and has performed from Hollywood to New York and into Canada. Its repertoire draws on versions of White Christmas by The Drifters and Jingle Bells by The Puppini Sisters and Michael Bublé. The group offers concerts, tree-lighting performances, and a cappella caroling, joining a retro visual style with both classic and modern holiday music.

Short bio

The Sugarplums perform holiday favorites in a signature blend of classic, modern, and retro styles. Their show features sweet harmonies, charming choreography, and engaging interaction, with options for shows, concerts, tree lightings, and a cappella caroling.

Full press bio

The Sugarplums bring holiday favorites to shows, concerts, tree lightings, and a cappella caroling for public, private, and corporate events. Their performances blend classic, modern, and retro styles, from “White Christmas” as performed by The Drifters to lively renditions of “Jingle Bells” as performed by The Puppini Sisters and Michael Bublé. A trio of girls, they add sweet harmonies, charming choreography, and engaging audience interaction. The Sugarplums were the 2020 winners of the Christmas Caroler Challenge, a national singing competition on the CW.
